

St. Paul Missionary Baptist Church

Greetings,

Thank you for your interest in applying for the St. Paul Missionary Baptist Church, "Doris Livingston Scholarship of Community Service". Ms. Doris Livingston has been an active member, deaconess, and church mother of St. Paul Missionary Baptist Church for many years and through her selfless actions, she has been influential in serving others in the community by visiting the sick, served as the Suwannee River Association Women's Ministry President, served as a Sunday School teacher, coordinated homeless outreach activities, and comforting others through hard times.

In her honor, St. Paul Missionary Baptist Church has established a scholarship to award one Newberry High School graduating senior that has served others in their community a $1,000 scholarship to support their future endeavors in continuing their education to a college, university, or vocational training center. Enclosed you will find the scholarship guidelines, criteria, and application.

If you have any questions, please contact the Scholarship Committee by email only with the subject line, "Scholarship Inquiry" to stpaulmbc1913@gmail.com. Please allow up to 3 business days for a reply from the Scholarship Committee

Again, thank you for interest in applying to the St. Paul Missionary Baptist Church, "Doris Livingston Scholarship of Community Service".

Sincerely,

Scholarship Committee
