

CONSUMABLE MATERIALS

(consumable – an item that cannot be reused after a lab activity)

Examples of Consumable Items:

Chemicals	Dissecting Animals
Disposable Gloves	Owl Pellets
Glassware	Beans/Seeds
Plastic Wrap, Foil	Soil
Plastic Baggies	Fertilizer
Q-Tips, Cotton Balls	Food Coloring
Balloons	pH Test Strips
Agar	Litmus Paper
Disposable Pipettes	Toothpicks
Straws	Corn Starch, Salt, etc.
Filters	Cooking Oil
Glass Marking Pencils	Gelatin

The following items CANNOT be ordered with consumable funds:

Food items (anything which can be eaten cannot be ordered)

Office supplies such as markers, tape, paper clips, etc.

Equipment such as balances, microscopes, lenses, etc.

Batteries

Calculators

Hardware such as bolts, nuts, washers, nails, screws, etc.

Science fair materials

Anything for another subject area

Anything electrical (light bulbs, motors, etc.)

Clothing such as lab coats or aprons that are not disposable (however, you can order cheap disposable aprons, gloves, goggles, etc.)

Wall thermometers (they are considered equipment)

Paper products (paper towels, paper plates, paper cups, plastic spoons, etc.)

All consumable orders MUST be submitted by Thursday, April 30, 2016

Ordering Information:

Submit a completed order form to the bookkeeper at your school.

Funds must be used for this year's science students.

Questions???

Contact Maureen Shankman @ shankmmb@gm.sbac.edu or 955-7628