Teaching and Learning

Example: High Dosage Tutoring

Focus Area: Reading Fluency

The Simple View of Reading

(Gough & Tunmer, 1986)

Reading comprehension is the product of decoding and linguistic comprehension.

~70%

$$D \times LC = RC$$

~10%

Text-level automaticity
Word-level automaticity
Decoding accuracy
Phonemic awareness

- Vocabulary
- Background knowledge
- Language structures
- Verbal reasoning

According to research shared with us by Dr. Holly Lane, 70% of students not meeting grade level expectations have an issue with decoding.

Another 20% have an issue with decoding and linguistic comprehension.

Proposed System- Elementary

ACPS Tutors

- Trained paraprofessionals and intervention teachers implement Sound Partners (K) and Systematic Instruction in Phonological Awareness, Phonics, and Sight Words (SIPPS) (1-5) daily
 - K and 1: Groups of 1 or 2, 15-20 minutes per day
 - 2-5: Groups of 3 or fewer, 30 minutes per day

Volunteer Tutors

- Great Leaps, one-on-one sessions 10 minutes per day, three times per week

Proposed System Secondary (6-10)

ACPS Tutors

- Intensive Reading/Reading Teachers and paraprofessionals implement REWARDS for 25 minutes daily, four students per group, for one 9-week period
- Volunteer Tutors
- Great Leaps, one-on-one sessions 10 minutes per day, three times per week

Which students will be eligible?

- All K-5 students will receive fluency assessments.
 - Students scoring below the 25th percentile will be eligible to participate
- All 6-10 grade level students will be administered fluency probes if they are not meeting grade level expectations on ELA progress monitoring assessments.
 - Students scoring below the 25th percentile will be eligible to participate

How will we measure effectiveness?

- Each student will have a personalized goal/target in order to show growth to meet at least the 50th percentile in reading fluency by the end of the year.
- Students participating in high dose tutoring will have weekly fluency probes to track their progress.
- Students will have quarterly benchmark assessments to determine the overall impact on reading comprehension.

Resources Needed

Personnel (Based on current intervention data)

- 55 paraprofessionals at the elementary level
- 18 paraprofessionals for middle/high

$1,679,000 including salaries/benefits

Materials and Professional Development

- Great Leaps Kits, REWARDS Materials and Professional Development

$49,324

Sustainability

If these interventions prove to be successful:

- Title I schools can repurpose the use of existing paraprofessionals/intervention teacher positions
- Non-Title I and middle schools may receive para support funded from Supplemental Academic Instruction (SAI) or potentially Rural District Grant (RDG) funds (one per school)
- High Schools can use their own funds to purchase/repurpose the use of paraprofessional positions
- Materials would need to be replenished as needed, but most of the materials are non-consumable.

Mental Health

- Social Emotional Learning
- Student & Employee Mental Health Counseling
- Online Mental Health Courses
 - Kognito Licenses
- Youth Mental Health First Aid Training
- Group Therapy Programs
- Family Engagement Programs
- Community Schools

Mental Health Support- Example:

Family Liaison

- Funding family liaisons for all schools.
- Support families with care driven professionals able to understand family needs.
- Serve as a facilitator to the school community by bridging relationships with family, community, and school.

Mental Health Support- Example:

Bereavement Group Therapy

- Collaborate with Hospice supports to provide monthly and continuous group therapy for children experiencing grief from the death of a significant person.
- Offered at each school

Address Structural Barriers- Systems

Dual Language Immersion: Exploring Possibilities

Why Dual Language Immersion (DLI)?

Global Competence

“The world that students are going to live in is going to require a large number of individuals who are able to navigate linguistic and cultural borders.”

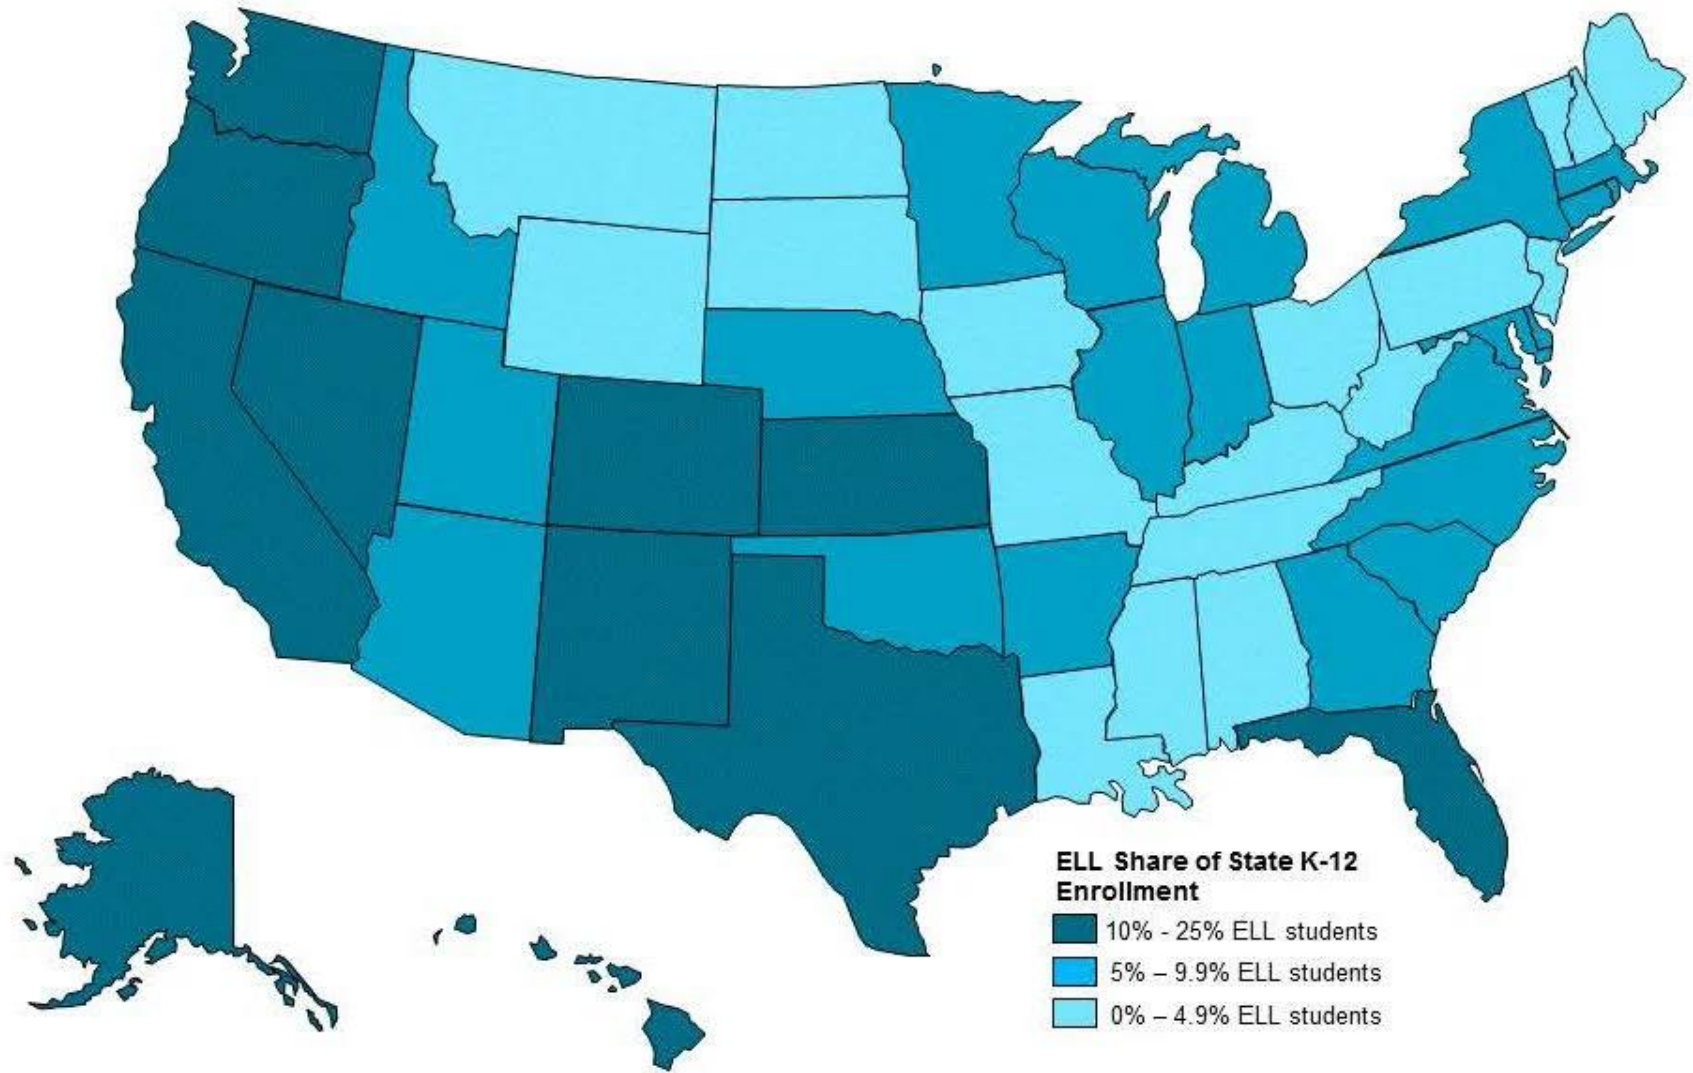

- Dr. Jon Valentine,
GCPS Director of
Foreign Languages

Bilingualism

EL’s are an asset. Embracing the languages and cultures of our students improves appreciation of our diverse community.

Equity

K-12 English learners and English speakers increase language, academic, communication, empathy, and cultural awareness, alongside one another.

Target Students

- 50% English speakers and 50% target language speakers
- Most effective when started in Kindergarten.
- Enrollment is voluntary, starting with incoming kindergartners and maybe first grade building by one grade-level every year; If K-5 est., DLI for KG and culture for 1st-5th grade.

STEAM Magnet: Exploring Possibilities

Why STEAM?

Science Technology Engineering Art Mathematics

STEAM education gives students tools and methods to explore new and creative ways of problem-solving, displaying data, innovating, and linking multiple fields. The arts and STEM subjects naturally complement and inform each other, so implementing STEAM principles into education allows for more understanding, innovation and a cohesive education in the classroom.

What does STEAM look like?

Year 1	Resource teachers integrating STEAM curriculum into their instruction. Homeroom teacher leading students through 2 STEAM project weeks.
Year 2	Resource teachers continue STEAM integration. Homeroom teachers begin to infuse STEAM lessons into their weekly curriculum.
Year 3	Full STEAM infused curriculum throughout the entire school.

Will also include STEAM Parent Nights and STEAM related field trips.

Target Students

- Focus on increasing zoned student enrollment
- Create feeder pattern into Whole School Howard Bishop Magnet
- Whole school STEAM Program

6 Goals of Educational Equity

Public schools are accountable for educating all learners to high academic standards and outcomes regardless of the differing characteristics of those learners.

<https://www.idraeacsouth.org/>

Goal
1

Comparably High Academic Achievement and Other Student Outcomes

Disaggregated data on academic achievement and other student outcomes should show high comparable performance for all identifiable groups of learners, and achievement and performance gaps should be virtually non-existent.

Goal
2

Equitable Access and Inclusion

Schools ensure unobstructed entrance into, involvement of and full participation of learners in schools, programs and activities.

Goal
3

Equitable Treatment

Patterns of interaction between individuals and within an environment should be accepting, valuing, respectful, supportive, safe and secure such that students feel challenged to be invested in the pursuits of learning and excellence without fear of threat, humiliation, danger or disregard.

Goal
4

Equitable Opportunity to Learn

At a minimum, learning opportunities should ensure that every child, regardless of characteristics and identified needs, is presented with the challenge to reach high standards and receives the requisite pedagogical, social, emotional and psychological supports to achieve the high standards of excellence that are established.

Goal
5

Equitable Resources

Resources – including money, time, qualified staff, appropriate facilities, materials, instructional hardware and software, and academic and other supports – must be distributed in ways to ensure that all students achieve high academic standards.

Accountability

All education stakeholders should accept responsibility and hold themselves and each other responsible for every learner having full access to quality education, qualified teachers, challenging curriculum, full opportunity to learn, and appropriate, sufficient support for learning so they can achieve at excellent levels in academic and other student outcomes.

The background is a dark, almost black, field filled with a complex pattern of small, glowing green and purple dots. These dots are connected by thin, wavy lines of the same colors, creating a sense of movement and energy. The overall effect is reminiscent of a starry night sky or a microscopic view of a complex system.
