

Title I Home to School Compact

2024-2025

This compact pledges Terwilliger Elementary and the parents of students participating in activities, services, and programs funded by Title I, Part A of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) agree that the entire school staff, parents and students will share the responsibility to increase student achievement in reading and math so that all students will meet state graduation requirements.

School's Responsibilities

Terwilliger teachers and staff will:

- Create a partnership with every family
- Monitor student progress and update families regularly
- Explain my approach to teaching, expectations, and grading to students and their families
- Use the Title I Home-School Compact at parent-teacher conferences and other meetings
- To differentiate my instruction to increase student achievement
- Provide resources for families to use at home
- Create a climate conducive to learning

Family Responsibilities

I, as parents, will support our children's learning in the following ways:

- Ensure my child arrives at school on time and monitor their attendance
- Attend parent teacher conferences
- Read with my child for at least 20 minutes each day
- Show my child the importance of education
- Encourage my child to follow school rules and expectations
- Make sure my child is completing homework

Student Responsibilities

I, as a student, will share the responsibility to increase our reading and math skills to meet the State's high standards. Specifically, I will,

- Let my teacher and family know if I need help
- Read on my own and with my family everyday
- Complete class and homework assignments
- Be respectful, responsible, and ready to learn

We understand that complying with the terms of this Compact and the Student Code of Conduct will result in a positive education experience.
