

IDYLVILD'S TITLE I HOME-SCHOOL AGREEMENT 2023-2024

Idylwild Elementary School and the parents of students participating in activities, services, and programs funded by Title I, Part A of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) agree that this compact outlines how the parents, the entire school staff, and the students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership that will help children achieve the state's high standards.

Idylwild Elementary and our school community pledge to create a welcoming environment where positive relationships are fostered in order to increase students' academic and social skills, enabling them to grow to their fullest potential.

School Responsibilities

- Provide high quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables children to meet the state's high academic achievement standards.
- Instruction will be given from highly trained teachers and school support staff that are striving to meet the individual needs of all students.
- Provide instruction that is guided by individual differences and student needs.
- Hold an annual meeting to inform parents of the school's participation in Title1, Part A programs.
- Inform parents of important dates and information pertaining to instruction and events being held at the school through newsletters, peachjar, and/or Skylert.
- Provide parents with reasonable access to staff.
- Provide parents with opportunities to volunteer at school.
- Create a partnership with families in our school.
- Monitor student progress in core academic areas and provide information to families that can be used to make decisions about their child's education.
- Provide parents with assistance in understanding academic standards, assessments, and how to monitor their student's progress.
- Provide parents with training and/or materials to help them support student academic achievement at home.

Parent/Family Responsibilities

Idylwild Parents agree to support their children by:

- Ensuring my child is at school on time (7:45 AM), well rested, and ready to learn.
- Making sure my child attends school regularly.
- Being actively involved in my child's education.
- Keeping the school informed of any changes in my address, telephone numbers, and contact person(s).
- Supporting the school's discipline plan at home.
- Checking Skyward Parent Portal regularly to view graded work.
- Setting aside a daily time and space for my child to complete their homework and checking over it once it is completed.
- Communicating regularly with my child's teacher.
- Being actively involved in my child's education.
- Attending at least one school Parent & Family Engagement Activity, including those sponsored by Title I.
- Talking to my child about the importance of school.
- Limiting the usage of electronic devices for non-academic activities.

Student Responsibilities

Idylwild Students agree to share the responsibility to improve their academic achievement by:

- Coming to school on time, well rested and ready to learn.
- Behaving as a leader by following Idylwild's school academic and behavior expectations.
- Respecting adults, myself and other students.
- Letting my teacher and family know if I need help with my learning.
- Completing my classwork and homework assignments daily.
- Giving the adults at home all letters and notices that are sent home with me from school.
- Reading at least 20 minutes every day outside of school hours.
- Talking to my parents about school.
- Showing my homework and graded work to my parents.
