Latroy Strappy presented information about the Positive Support philosophy to encourage improved school wide behaving. Several teachers attended a 3-day training in Ocala recently. PBS has several components to its system of rewards and consequences, including a proactive response toward recognizing good behaviors, reinforcement, and also consequences for negative behavior.

Jeff Charbonnet and Sylvia Walker presented the findings of the Accreditation Quality Assurance Review Team. The team visited EHS in October and approved continued full accreditation for the school. The SAC reviewed and discussed their report.

The SAC reviewed their budget and voted to approve the proposed expenditures of $25,000 and hold remaining funds in reserve until the allocation of AP incentive money.

The SAC reviewed and approved the form that will be used for EHS teacher mini-grant applications.

Mr. Charbonnet shared the tentative graduation rate report showing Eastside High with the highest rate in the district at 88%.

The next SAC meeting will be on January 19, 2012 at 530. Applications for mini grants will be reviewed at that meeting.
